
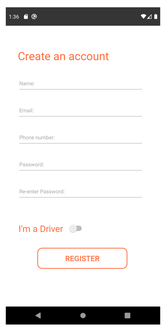
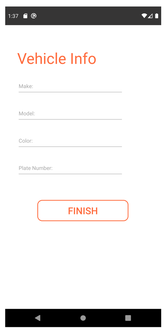
Sign in

When the user chooses to sign in/ sign up as a rider, he can enter his email address and his password by clicking in the corresponding text box. If he already has a account click on the 'Sign in' button. If he does not have an account before, he can click on the 'Sign up' button, which will lead to another page.



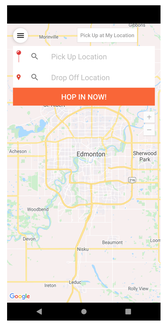
Sign up

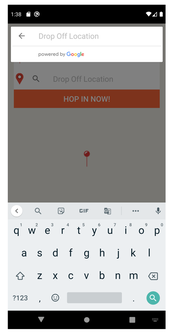
This is the sign up page for the rider, he needs to provide his email, password and user name by clicking and typing into the corresponding text box, and click on the 'Create Account' button to finish his sign up, he can also cancel his registration at any time by click on the 'Cancel' button.



Sign up as Driver

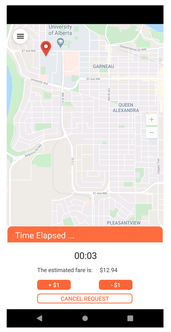
This is the follow-up of sign up page for driver. A driver has to give additional information which is make, model, color and plate number.





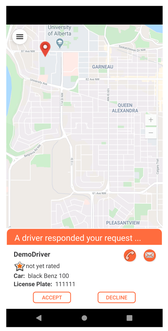
Login as Rider

This is the view when a user is signed in as a rider, and he will see his current location via the map located at the top of the screen. He can enter pickup location by clicking on the 'From' text box or choose from the map. And enter his destination by typeing into the 'To' text box or choose from the map, and then click the 'Hop in NOW' button. At the top left corner, there's also a menu button which will direct to the menu page; and a scan button which allows the user to display his QR code. After clicking on the 'Hop in NOW' button, the rider sends request to nearby drivers.



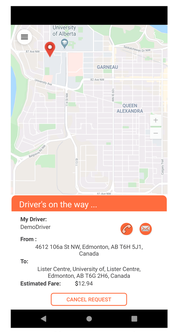
Waiting for Response

When the rider finishing the previous step, he is provided with the flooring view: a count down time which indicates his searching time; an estimating price for the ride; Rider can also give a tip to the driver by clicking on the "+/-" button. There are also an options button, directing to cancel his appointment. At the top left corner, the menu button is still available during this period.



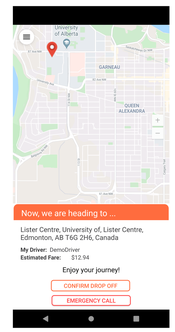
Request Responded, Driver's Offer Waiting to be Accepted

As long as the rider posts his appointment , the nearby driver can see his request and accept. When any driver accepts rider's request, the driver's profile will be presented to the rider's phone. Rider is able to accept this driver or decline by clicking on the corresponding button 'Accept' and 'Decline'. The map will also zoom in so that the driver and rider can be contained into the same screen.



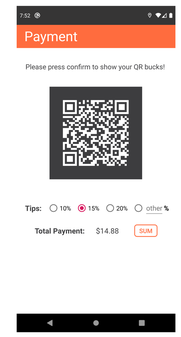
Offer Accepted, Waiting for Pickup

When the rider confirm the drive, the application will continue display driver's information. The rider can call or email the driver by clicking on the corresponding buttons. and he can still cancel his ride by clicking on the 'Cancel the Ride' button. The minimap will continously display driver's location.



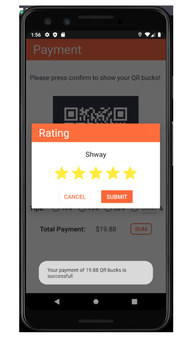
User picked up User Comfirmation

At the time the driver arrived rider's pick up location, and has picked up the rider, the rider's application will display his destination and with along a emergency call button in case any emergency happens. There's also a comfirmation button that allow rider confirms that the ride has complete.



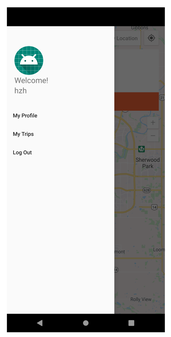
Trip complete. User paying the fare

As ride is completed, after the driver confirms finishing the ride, the application will automatically pop up rider's QR code. The driver can scan this QR code to proceed with payment. The rider is also able to add tips to the driver by clicking on the corresponding percentage buttons in the middle of the screen. After deciding the final payment, the rider can click 'Confirm' button to send money to the driver.



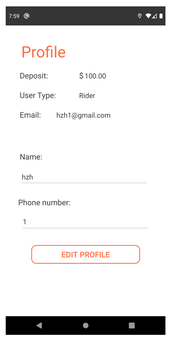
Rating

After the payment process, the rider is provided with a rating view, in which he can choose how man stars to give to the driver. When the user finishes his comment, he or she can click on the submit button to post the review. The press of submit button completes the request to a trip on the rider's perspective.



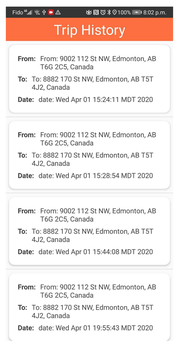
View Menu as Rider

This is the rider's menu page which contains three buttons: 'My profile', which will lead to his personal infomational; 'My Trips', which will lead to his previous completeed trips; 'Chat', which will lead to his chatlog with drivers. At the bottom, there is also a ' log out' button which allows the user to log out.



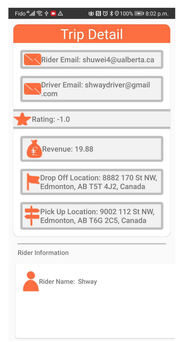
View/Edit My Profile as Rider

In the 'My Profile' page, rider can view and edit his basic information: Name, Phone and Email. These information can be edited



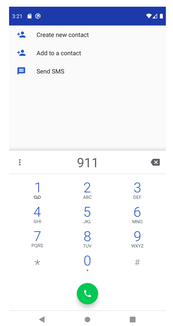
View Trip History as Rider

In the 'My Trip' page, rider can his view previous trips, and for each trip, the basic information like index, date, pick up location, and drop off location. Each trip is also a button, which directs to another page that displays detailed information on driver of the trip.



View Trip Details as Rider

Displays trip's detail, including emials, rating, and fare, address, and user info

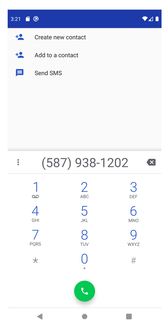


Emergency Call

This is the emergency call page displayed on rider's phone, it has a dial pad with number buttons, deletion button, and call button.

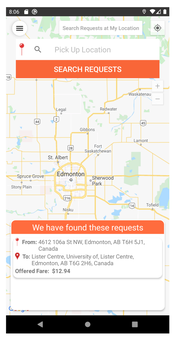
Email Driver

This is the page that rider can emails driver.



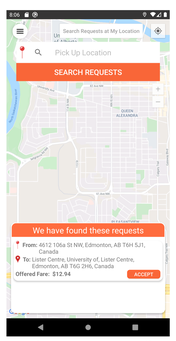
Call Driver

This is the page that rider calls driver.



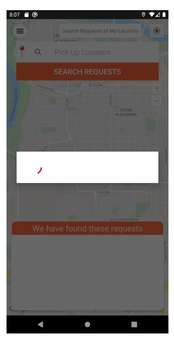
Go Online and Search for Requests

When the driver decides to search for requests, it will start to search his nearby area and list all the requests on his page button, and driver can click on a request to see its detail. The minimap above shows driver's location. On the top left corner, the menu button is also available for driver, by clicking on the menu button, it will lead to a new page. On the top right, there is a scan button which allows the driver to scan rider's QR code



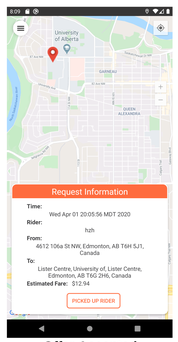
View Request Detail

When the driver click on a certain request, it will display its time, pick up point, and destination; it will also display the estimaed distance, fare, and customer username. The rider can Accept or Dismiss the request by clicking on the corresponding buttons.



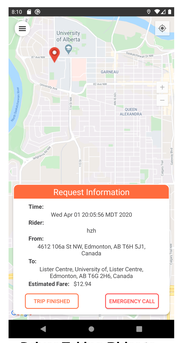
Waiting for User to Accept the Offer

After confirming the request, a window with text 'Your offer is being reviewed, Please stand by. %d seconds remaining' will pop up, indicating that driver is viewing driver's profile and deciding whether to continue. The seconds will count down to zero, and the offer will be canceled automatically.



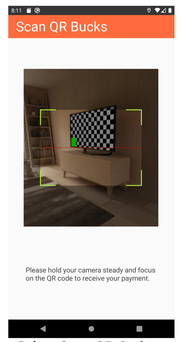
Offer Accepted Driver Going to Pick up Rider

This page shows the map of pick up point and driver's current location with a route indicating direction. At the bottom, there is also a 'Rider Picked up' which indicates that the driver has picked up the rider. On the top left corner, the menu button is also available for driver, by clicking on the menu button, it will lead to a new page. On the top right, there is a scan button which allows the driver to scan rider's QR code.



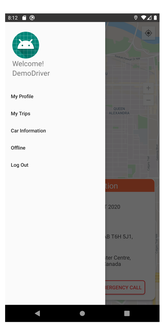
Driver Taking Rider to Destination

The map shows the route to the drop off location, with two buttons, one indicating the driver has delivered the rider to the drop off location, and another button which allows the driver to make a emergency Call in case anything happens. On the top left corner, the menu button is also available for driver, by clicking on the menu button, it will lead to a new page. On the top right, there is a scan button which allows the driver to scan rider's QR code



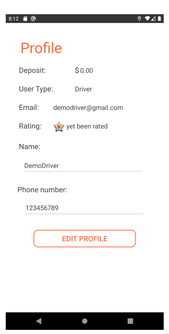
Driver Scan QR Code to Receive Payment

This is the page of scan button, it allows driver to scan rider's QR code and receive payment tom complete the Request to a trip on driver's perspective.



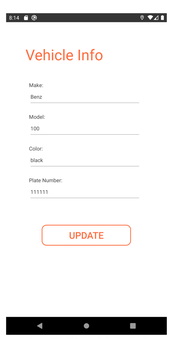
View Menu as Driver

This is the driver's menu page which contains five buttons: 'My profile', which will lead to his personal infomational; 'My trips', which will display his trip historys. 'Car Infomation' which will display car specific information. 'Offline' which will let driver go to offline mode. 'Log out' button, and allows the user to log out.



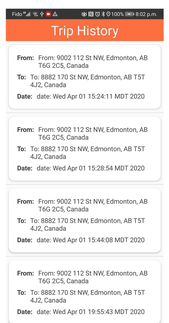
View My Profile as Driver

In the 'My Profile' page, driver can see his basic information: Name, Phone, Email, and car model. These information can be edited.



View/Edit Vehicle Info

The user can click one of the edit text and then edit the information, followed by clicking the update button when finished.

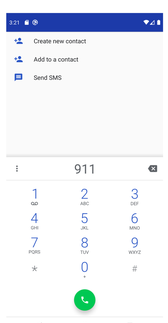


View Requests Accepted

In the my trips page, driver can see his privous accepted offers.

Display History Trip Detail

Displays trip's detail, including emials, rating, and fare, address, and user info



Emergency Call

This is the emergency call page displayed on rider's phone, it has a dial pad with number buttons, deletion button, and call button.